

Please do not stop regulating broadband service. I believe this would hurt my local independent Internet Service Provider and ultimately force me a consumer to only buy broadband internet services from the phone company's own ISP. This would hurt me as a consumer and my community by reducing competition by limiting the choices available.